

Power Platforms and Lifts

Employee Name:

1. The use of fall protection is required when using both types (scissor and aerial) of lifts. T / F
2. Training is required for all employees operating or working on a lift. T / F
3. Training should include the nature of any lift hazards, electrical hazards, fall hazards, and falling object hazards in the work area. T / F
4. Employers must ensure that employees are familiar with the lift they are asked to use. T / F
5. Additional training is required when changes in the worksite present a hazard that was not previously known to the employee. T / F
6. When selecting a lift to use, the type of work being performed, the terrain in which it will be used, and the cost of renting the lift are all factors that must be considered for safety reasons. T / F
7. A pre-start inspection of the lift must be performed before each use of any lift. T / F
8. Belting off to an adjacent pole or structure while working from a lift is permitted. T / F
9. If transferring from a lift to an adjacent structure, 100% tie-off is required. T / F
10. Fall protection is required for all employees that perform work on a lift if they are going to be elevated to a height of 10 feet above a lower level. T / F